

ACCEPTABLE USE POLICY

This acceptable use policy sets out the terms between you and us under which you may access our website www.helpingcards.com. This acceptable use policy applies to all users of, and visitors to, our site.

Your use of our site means that you accept, and agree to abide by, all the policies in this acceptable use policy, which supplement our terms of website use.

www.helpingcards.com is a site operated by Helping Cards and we have our office at The Lecture Room, Parham Hall, Hall Hill, Parham, Suffolk IP13 9AB, England.

Prohibited uses

You may only use our site for lawful purposes. You may not use it in any way that breaches any laws or regulations, unlawfully, or fraudulently, nor for harming or attempting to harm minors in any way.

You may not send, upload, download, use or re-use any material you find on this website and you may not use it to send any material of any kind to anyone except ourselves. You may not use this website or our addresses to send unlawful material or material that is defamatory, threatening, discriminatory, or extremist or that has the potential to radicalise themselves or others. You may not send material to which you do not have intellectual property rights or which in breach of a legal duty owed to another party. You may not knowingly transmit any data, send or upload any material that contains viruses, Trojan horses, worms, time-bombs, keystroke loggers, spyware, adware or any other harmful programs or similar computer code designed to adversely affect the operation of any computer software or hardware.

You agree not to reproduce, duplicate, copy or re-sell any part of our site in contravention of the provisions of our terms of website use, nor to access without authority, interfere with, damage or disrupt our site or equipment or network on which our site is stored or any software used in the provision of our site; or any equipment or network or software owned or used by anyone else.

Interactive services

We may from time to time provide interactive services on our site, such as chat rooms, bulletin boards (remember them?) or blogs. When we do, we will tell you about the kind of service offered, if it is moderated and what form of moderation is used (including whether it is human).

We will do our best to assess any possible risks for users (and in particular, for children), however, we are under no obligation to oversee, monitor or moderate any interactive service we provide on our site, and we expressly exclude our liability for any loss or damage arising from the use of any interactive service by a user in contravention of our content standards, whether the service is moderated or not.

It is important that you communicate with any children using this site about their safety online. Under 18s should be made aware of online risks and we cannot accept any purchases from anyone under 18.

Content standards

These content standards apply to any and all material which you contribute to our site (contributions), and to any interactive services associated with it.

You must comply with the spirit and the letter of the following standards. The standards apply to each part of any contribution as well as to its whole.

Contributions must be accurate, genuinely held and comply with any applicable laws in the UK and in any country from which they are posted.

Contributions must not defame anyone, nor contain anything obscene, offensive, hateful or inflammatory, promote sexually explicit material, violence or discrimination of any kind. We reserve the right to remove any contribution that does. The same goes for any copyright, database right or trade mark infringement, anything we consider likely to deceive anyone, anything which breaches any legal duty to anyone else, anything which promotes anything illegal, that threatens or abuses or invades anyone's privacy. We will remove anything that we consider likely to harass, upset, alarm, embarrass or annoy anyone, including ourselves. Obviously you may not impersonate someone else, nor misrepresent your identity, nor give the impression that a message from you is from us. You may not promote or help anyone in any unlawful act such as for example copyright infringement or computer misuse. But you knew all that anyway.

Suspension and termination

If we decide breach of this policy has occurred, we may take such action as we think is appropriate.

Failure to comply with this acceptable use policy constitutes a material breach of the terms under which you may use our site. We may then withdraw your right to use our site, remove anything you have posted on the site, take legal action against you and disclose what happened to law enforcement as we feel necessary.

We exclude liability for actions taken in response to breaches of this acceptable use policy. The responses described in this policy are not limited, and we may take other actions we consider appropriate.

Changes to the acceptable use policy

We may revise this acceptable use policy at any time by amending this page, which is legally binding on you. Some of the items in this policy may also be superseded by provisions or notices elsewhere on our site.
